*We Gratefully Dedicate
This Issue of Maxaipa to You...*

Rev. Robert C. Duez

...Professor, Counselor, Friend

Careful preparation makes Mr. Duez an appreciated prof.

"Smile, it's the Maxaira!"

Thank you, Mr. Duez, for practicing an "open door" theology. One might expect the Chairman of the Theology Department in any Bible College to be either very aloof, or else very buried under the dry, dusty books of other theologians. Such is not your policy. You have shown us how the glorious truths of God's Word relate to day by day living, both by your teaching and by your life.

You have welcomed our opinions in the classroom, and have challenged us to study more carefully God's revealed truth. You have opened your office door to hear our grievances and problems; and, most important, you have helped in God's molding process in our lives.

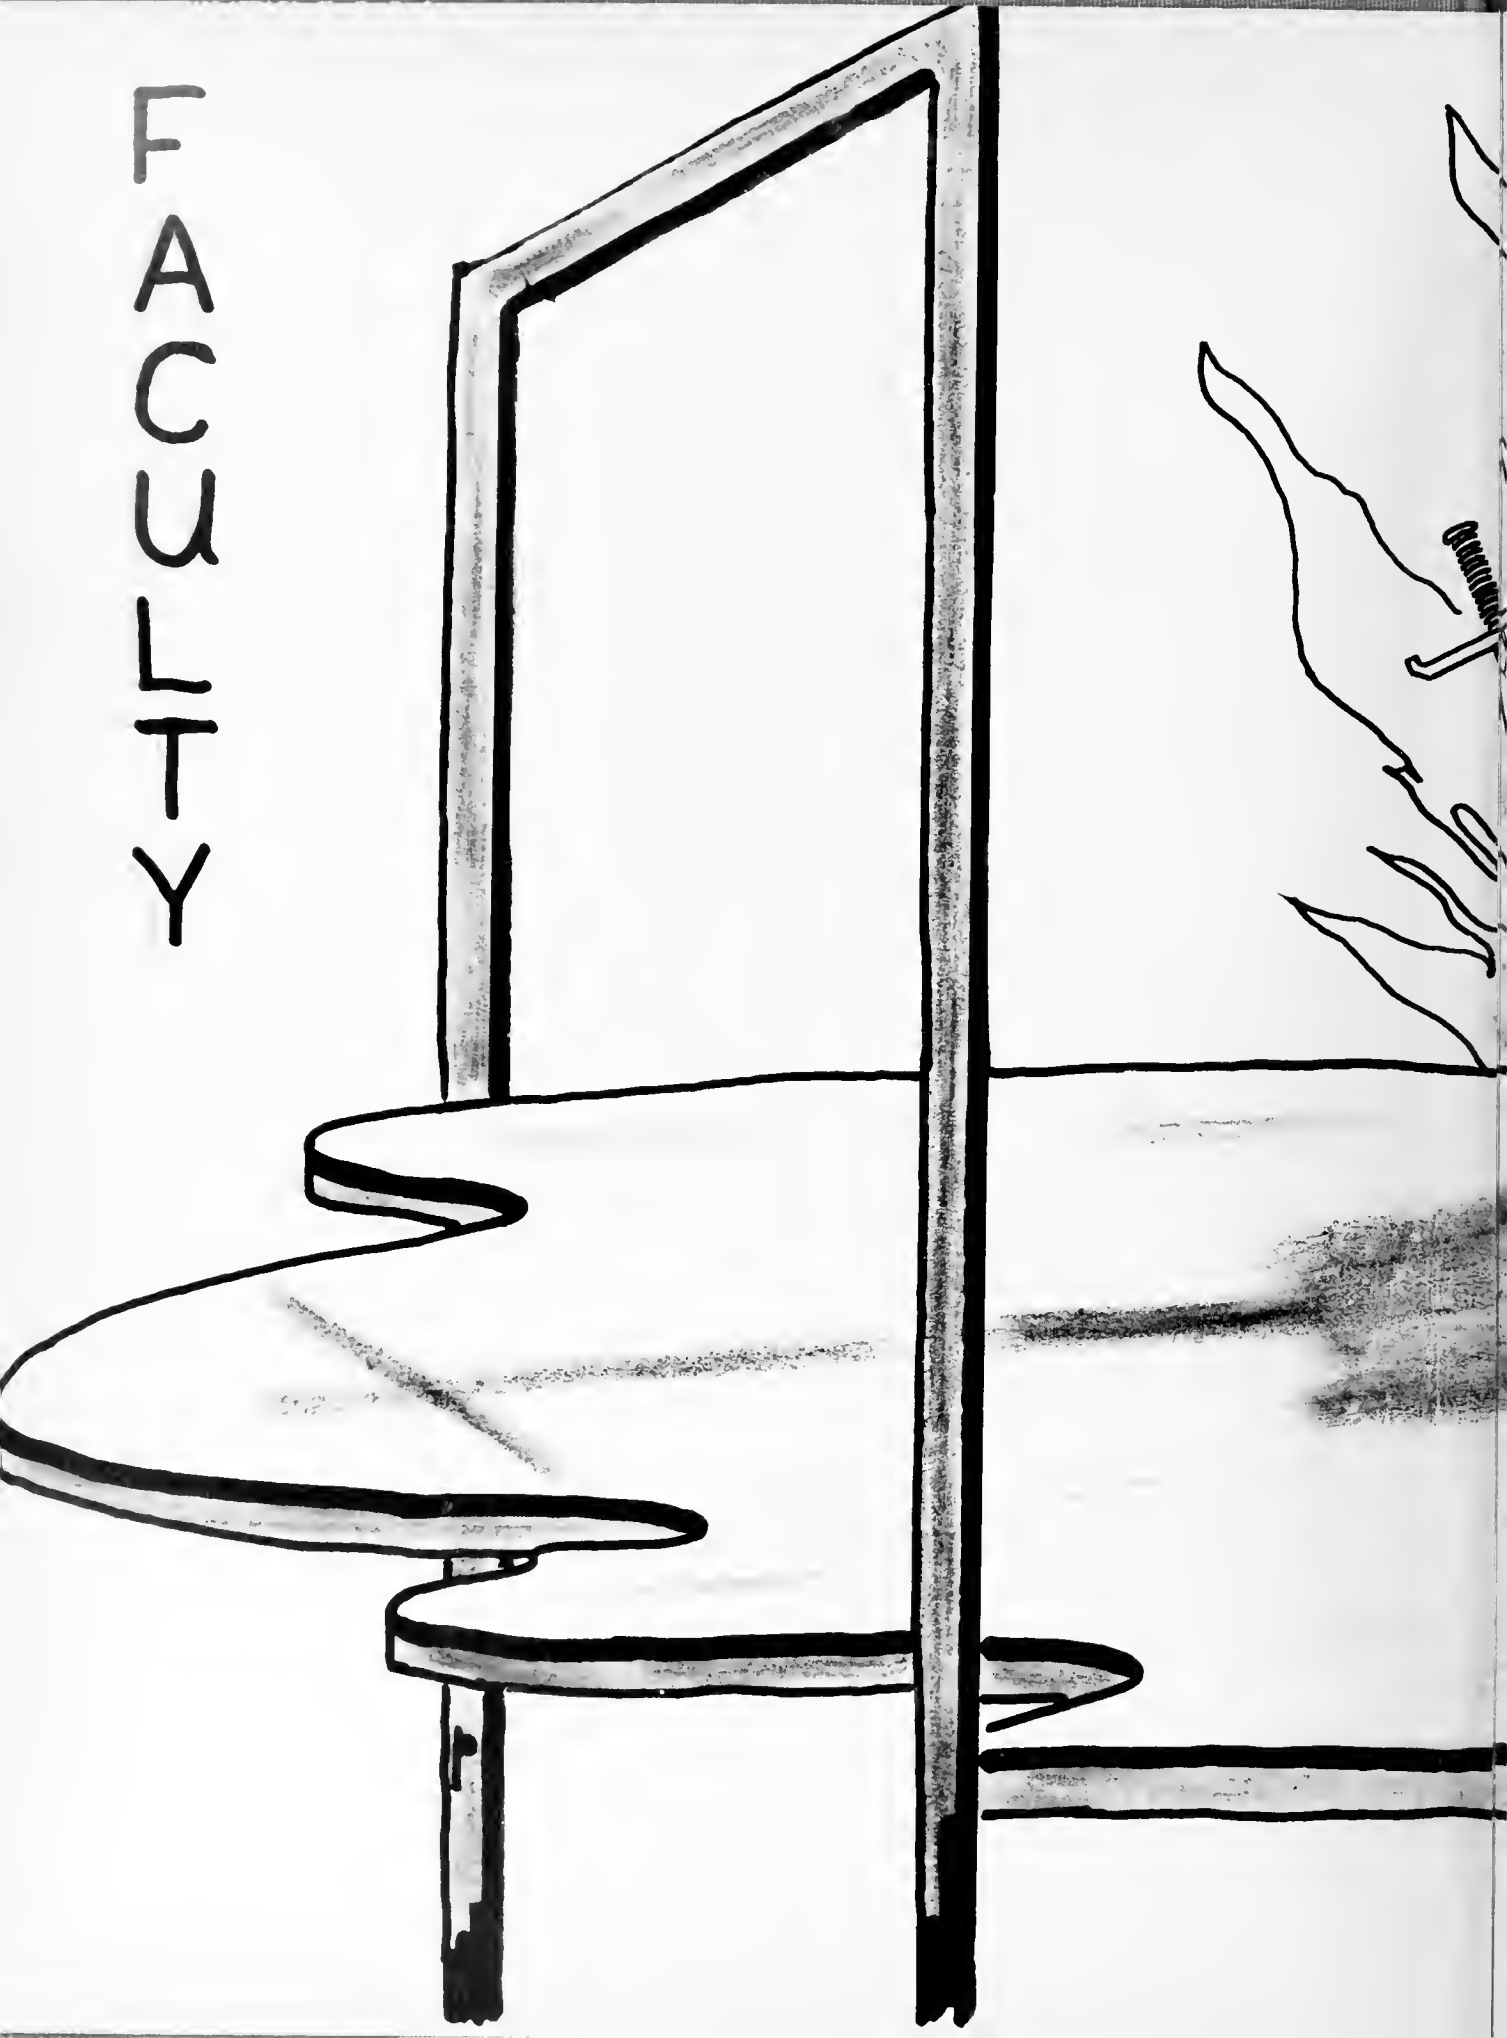

In appreciation for opening doors of truth to us, we dedicate this issue of Maaipa to you, Mr. Duez. Thank you.

Carl Simons and Mr. Duez discuss the Five-Points!

FACULTY

Our President ...

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

"Behold, I have set before you an open door." Selah! What a wonderful verse you have chosen! These are not idle words. Rather, they come from the lips of the Sovereign God, our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Therefore, we ought to give the more earnest heed to them.

Here is a promise, glorious and true. What privilege it suggests! In spite of Satan and all his forces of darkness, the God who saved you, young people, and called you into His blest service, has prepared the way before you - and who dare hinder?

Be strong, then, in the Lord, and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armour of God, and make full preparation to go forth to do exploits for Him. Some of you are now ready for the fray. Our prayers will be with you. Others are in various stages of preparation. May even these strenuous days be sanctified of God to the enrichment of your souls! God bless you one and all!

TO THE CLASS OF '73

MAKE THIS YOUR GOAL:

"I HAVE SET THE LORD ALWAYS BEFORE ME"
(Ps. 16:8)

AND MAKE THIS YOUR PRAYER:

ORD, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

IVINE MASTER, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Class Hymn

Fight the good fight with all thy might!
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.

Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

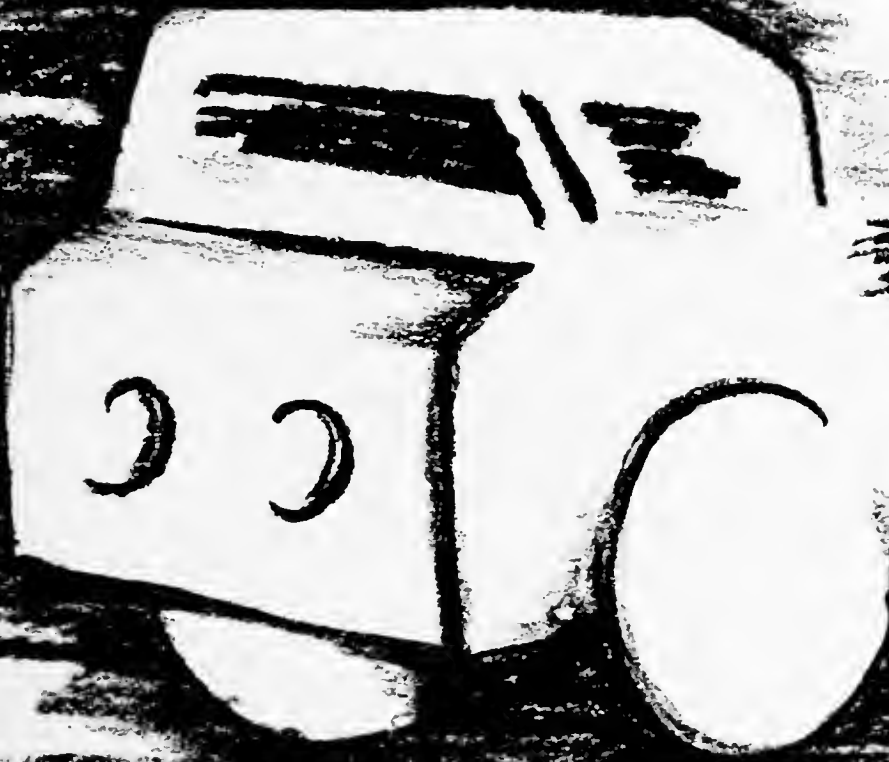

Cast care aside, lean on thy Guide,
His boundless mercy will provide;
Trust, and thy trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life and Christ its love.

Faint not nor fear, His arms are near,
He changeth not, and thou art dear;
Only believe, and thou shalt see,
That Christ is all to thee.

- John S. B. Monsell.

As a clergyman, you're entitled to lower insurance rates.

Here's why. Because statistics prove clergymen live longer than almost any other group. Since these statistics are a major factor in life insurance rates, the longer you live the lower your rates should be.

We sell to clergymen. Other companies don't treat clergymen as a special group. They lump you right in with everybody else. That means higher rates. But since we sell life insurance only to clergymen and career religious workers, our rates are considerably lower. It's really as simple as that.

Of all faiths. We started out in 1717 just for Presbyterians. But now our policyholders include Methodists, United Church, Jews, Anglicans, Buddhists, Baptists, Roman Catholics, Unitarians, Churches of Christ, Lutherans, Salvationists, Pentecostals as well as Presbyterians.

Prove it for yourself.

If you've been shopping for life insurance or retirement income recently, you have a pretty good idea of what it can cost. This coupon is a worthwhile way to find out more about how you can save money. You're entitled to it.

ACTIVITIES ~ ORGANIZATIONS

Students' Council

What is Students' Council? Why is there a Students' Council at O.B.C.? These are two questions that were brought to the minds of Council members during the first meetings of the 1972-1973 Students' Council. These are questions that could not be answered easily.

The Students' Council of 1972-1973 has attempted to function in the capacity in which we feel God has definitely led us to do. That capacity is one of ministry: the ministry of leadership. As elected leaders, Council members endeavoured to minister to the student body through the various agencies and committees of Council. We were able to represent students to faculty through the various faculty committees such as Community Life, Instructional Affairs, Educational Resources, Field Education, and for the first time this year, the Academic Planning Committee.

The major change of plans attempted this year were with the Student-Faculty Retreat, Women's Affairs Committee and Education Day. The Student-Faculty Retreat was truly a learning experience from God as was the whole year. It was during this particular event that God taught us to rely on Him in faith. Women's Affairs plans were incorporated into Social Rec. and Dev. Comm. to reduce duplication of ministry and to increase effectiveness. Education Day (this is the second year for this event) is an attempt to provide for the student body a Christian perspective for preparation of a life of service for our Lord.

Students' Council does have a purpose and that purpose this year was to provide responsible Christian leadership so that our community, Ontario Bible College would grow and so that each one of us would "mature in Christ Jesus". Our prayer is that our learning will not stop here but rather will increase in the knowledge of our Lord so our service for Him would increase.

Missionary Committee

Chairman, Bill Gillespie, leading Missions Chapel.

Rev. G. Morehouse introduces J. Brotherton from TEAM.

Our Missionary Committee (See Index for names).

One of the most important aims of this Committee this year was to break down the false conception of two fields of service: home and abroad. Christ has given us only one mission, and that is to make disciples of men throughout the world by preaching and teaching the Scriptures. Therefore, we are stressing a wider vision of missions, namely, that each person's mission field is where God places him. Our own obligation is to be obedient to the call of the Lord.

Subsequent to this, Missionary Conference '73 stressed our individual responsibility to our immediate society, as well as that far away. Missionaries were billeted into the homes and residences of students, providing opportunity to get to know them better as "real guys". As well, we gave greater promotion to Student Summer Missionary opportunities.

Careful plans were also made to carry out a special ministry to our immediate neighbourhood, - OUTREACH DAY, January 31. Literature was distributed and doors were knocked on - but not without fear and trepidation. We praise God for many good contacts made, and several individuals enrolled in a home Bible study course.

Our biggest concern as a Committee is that our concept of "missions" and "missionary vision" be perpetuated through the year and throughout the student body.

- Bill Gillespie

Mr. Wallace makes a personal introduction.

Devotional Committee

Our main objective is to make the student body aware of the necessity for personal and consistent communion with God. This is carried out by an emphasis on realistic and effectual prayer and meditating on the Scriptures; using various methods such as; group Bible studies, personal and group prayer, times of sharing and testimonies and Devotional chapels. We have also outfitted the 3 prayer rooms with Bibles, devotional literature, and can supply N.T.'s for apt. Bible study groups.

Several ideas have been initiated--all of practical value to the student body. They are--prayer sessions for the Missionary Conference, a "personal prayer manual" for the students, a prayer-partner arrangement for the entire student body, divided men and women chapels, a "Day of Evangelism", and the days of prayer and group Bible studies.

- Sandy Young

Chairman, Sandy Young shares with Harold Longworth.

Skit on devotions--Satan subtly interrupts at an early hour.

Mrs. Stam shares her "How" for quiet time with God.

Devotional Committee. (See Index for names).

Social-Rec. Committee

Under the capable leadership and enthusiastic promoting of Ken Squirrell and committee, Social-Rec. experienced a banner year. Sometimes socials and sports events are not high on student's priority lists; however, those who responded and participated this year were well rewarded. The two "main events" each year are the Student-Faculty Retreat and QUAD Olympics. This year the Retreat weekend began Friday night with the O.B.C. parking lot taking on a coffee house atmosphere, then moving out to Albion Hills on Saturday. God blessed each one. Quad, the four-school sports competition and fellowship gathering, was no less a highlight. Again, O.B.C. came home with the much sought after sports trophy. Other school activities were planned: class retreats, socials, inter-class sports competitions, and others, to help develop the whole man for God's glory.

Chairman, Ken Squirrell promoting!

Students enjoyed fall moonlight cruise.

Social-Rec. highlight was QUAD.

Maxaipa Staff

The Maxaipa serves as a souvenir to students, reflecting various events and experiences of the year, as well as an important expression to the public of what OBC is all about. We trust that both have been accomplished to some degree.

Working with others towards a common goal is always a valuable learning experience. This year's yearbook committee was no exception. We each learned a little more-- about journalism, ourselves, and God -- each open doors.

Marketplace

Marion edits the many articles submitted.

Progress in the '72-'73 Marketplace has been going in all the way: trying new ideas, implementing a new format, and constant staff changes have given the editor a few gray hairs (hastily covered up!) Reaction to the paper has been good, with many students and faculty responding to issues in print. Hockey, socials, theology, interviews, cartoons, picture collages of school and dorm life: all found their expression through OBC's news media. We look forward to a continuation of change next year under Bill Lenny, taking over from retiring (and tired) editor, Marion Wyse.

Bill Lenny prepares article on OBC life.

Ruth Jordan gets the material to Newsweb.

Barry Dixon and Paul Haslam choose pictures that really tell it like it was.

"All the Counsel of God." Acts 20:27

In Paul's farewell speech to the elders of Ephesus he says, "I have not held back from announcing to you the whole purpose of God." Can we honestly say that we have done all we can do to announce to the three billion people of the world the whole purpose of God?

There are many ways of announcing the Good News, but distributing the Scriptures so people can read for themselves the Word of God continued to be a reliable way of presenting the undistorted whole Gospel.

Only as the Scriptures are TRANSLATED into the languages of the people (now in 1500 languages), PUBLISHED and DISTRIBUTED can the Scriptures announce to the readers "the whole counsel of God."

The Bible Society's world budget for this year is $9,000,000.

The work of the Canadian Bible Society is made possible by the sacrificial gifts of thousands of Christians from all Churches.

Hockey '72-'73

From the first practice in September we knew this year was the year of the Swordsmen. The guys formed a powerhouse that went through the entire first half of the season undefeated. Finally they lost a couple and brought us all down from Cloud 9. Since the team, which plays in the Toronto Evangelical Hockey League, has never before made the play-offs, this year has been unbelievable. Built around a number of experienced seniors and some exciting freshman the team has been within 1 or 2 points of first place all season. With probably the league's best goaltending, this year's hockey was the most exciting ever at O.B.C.

The annual O.B.C. Music Artist Series happened this January 10th, 1973. The place: Avenue Road Church; The guest artist: Miss Irene Jordan.

Miss Jordan has an international acclaim achieved with the Metropolitan Opera, the New York Opera, Covent Gardens, and the Chicago Lyric Opera. She has recently worked with Leonard Bernstein, William Steinberg, and Igor Stravinsky, among others.

It is a rare phenomenon to hear a true representation of the "Golden Age" era of singing. Miss Jordan is a magnificent example of this tradition. Accompanied by Mr. Edwin MacArthur, conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, she delighted her audience with the power of her dramatic soprano voice and superb voice control, singing selections from Handel, Schubert, Mozart, and Debussy among others, in English, French and German.

It was an absolutely thrilling performance. The audience showed their appreciation by a resounding standing ovation. Miss Jordan responded by returning to the stage and singing "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands", as a fitting conclusion to a delightful evening of music.

Tim Eaton augments P-R ministry with his trumpet.

Bryan Carson enjoys singing praises to God.

Missionary Conference

REV. FRED RENICH was chosen to be speaker at Missions Conference '73, after much prayerful consideration. Now, looking back, we are confident that he was God's man for that occasion. Rev. Renich was director of Missionary Internship until January, 1972. God has graciously used his wisdom, understanding, and refreshing Christian insights to bless and prepare many missionaries around the world. God used him again in such a fashion during this conference, in spite of the flu bug. He is a man who expressed a very practical sense of the presence of God and spoke to us with a deep awareness "that missions is the overflow of spiritual vitality in the church".

Rev. Renich is currently serving part-time with M.I. in a teaching capacity, but has also been led by God into a wider ministry to the Church of North America and overseas. We will not soon forget his stimulating, practical messages.

Literary Contest...

The Maxaipa and the Marketplace initiated a new contest in communicating the Gospel this year. Students were invited to submit articles based on our book theme: "Behold, I set before you an open door." (Rev. 3:8) Our winner: Miss Lois Barnes. Her entry:

Caged,
Like a bird
Looking through silver bars
Into the world beyond

God,
You're real,
You're outside looking in
To the world inside my cage.

I know You're there;
I believe the movements of my cage and the food and water there
Are from You - and You alone.

An open door --
You say it's open now,
To let me fly outside;
To let me BE - and free!

My burdened spirit longs
To spread its wings and fly,
To be free and never die.
But I must try...
To step outside the cage
Of my Self's boundaries...

Perched,
With head outside the door,
I look around and catch
A glimpse of life beyond.

Could really I
Find new release
By stepping out
To fly in His domain!

All that could keep me
Held inside
The cage I knew were my own selfish fears

Inside the cage
I flew around
And round and round
Until I dropped
Onto the bottom of the cage.

Exhausted,
Frustrated,
There I lay,
Bound and limited by my own desires ...

Until a Hand
So warm and tender
Reached in and nudged me
Till I gave in
And let It have its way.

The fears I had before
Are gone and in their place

Stand fascination and delight.
I now am out--
Am free, am me,
The one I'm made to be.

Release is great
But with that state
Comes wisdom of those left
Inside their cages
All around
Wherever I may fly.

Their doors are open,
Wide like mine,
But there they sit inside
So bored with life,
In emptiness
Because they will not fly.

Release is theirs
If they will dare
To step outside that door,
Or, giving in, allow that Hand
To life them to outside...

Praise God!
I know what freedom is--
That freedom from myself
So I can fly to others now
And show them a freed life.

And yet,
That door is open still --
The door to my own cage.
The choice is mine;
I can go back anytime
To live within myself ...

Read the art work through this book carefully, this will help you understand the artist's thoughts

Concerning the artwork
Here's a wee note
The artists got in
By appointment, not vote
As the work load got heavy
And the others dropped out,
The one that was left
Was the wierdest, no doubt"

As tradition was left for original form,
What the artist came up with wasn't quite in the norm
About all the symbols
we haven't got much,
But if you read the Bible you'll find such and such

The sun is the Son and the sword is the Word,
The rock is Christ Jesus and He is our Lord
The door is wide open and that you will see
Is found in the Book of Revelation chapter three

The sword as you know, is also the name
Of OBC's yearbook of singular fame

Brian Tucker

JESUS IS COMING SOON!
(PRAISE THE LORD)

WHICH NO MAN CAN

SHUT.
